

Assignment Justice: A Practical Guide for Sudanese Journalists

IWPR Netherlands
English and Arabic

IWPR Netherlands has produced a manual for Sudanese journalists aimed at increasing local capacity for court reporting and tackling issues relating to international justice and local trials.

Drawing on IWPR's training experience in other countries in which the International Criminal Court is active, such as Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo, the manual takes journalists through all the steps necessary to understand international justice and produce balanced, accurate stories on the subject and related issues.
